

JOHN DIPPONG

In his current position as Regional Feature Film Executive, John Dippong oversees Telefilm Canada's feature film development, production and marketing decisions in the Western Region. Prior to joining Telefilm in 1997, John spent two years as programmer of the Canadian Images Series at the Vancouver International Film Festival, was the Founding Director of Moving Pictures, Canadian Films on Tour - a traveling film festival designed to bring Canadian films into smaller centres in Western Canada, and co-produced Bruce Sweeney's second feature film, Dirty, which screened at the Sundance, Berlin and Toronto International Film Festivals.

