

THE LOT

LOVE HURTS

Logline

Two actors fall in love while re-enacting gruesome murders on a true crime TV show, but soon find themselves trapped in roles they never wrote for themselves.

THE LOT

Synopsis

The Lot is a supernatural thriller about fatal cycles within romantic relationships, set on the lot of a trashy true crime TV show. Rose, a 26 year old waitress with a troubled past, falls for her co-star Tommy (22), a fresh faced country boy looking for a big break as an actor, when they meet on the decrepit studio lot of Deadly Promises, a long-running true crime show that investigates cases of romance-turned murder. Cast because of their uncanny chance resemblance to a real life killer and victim by the show's eccentric producer, Faye Sutcliffe, the two find themselves falling uncontrollably in love while re-enacting a series of gruesome crimes on screen. However, their blossoming relationship is soon threatened by a supernatural influence which compels them to violently perform their scripted re-enactments within their own relationship. As the phenomenon escalates, the couple become unconscious threats to one another, and Rose must try desperately to uncover the cause of the curse in order to escape The Lot.
